UNES TO WATCH

65cc 10-11

You can certainly expect to see a dogfight in the older 65cc classes, at Ponca and Loretta's, between Cooper Webb and Connor Pearson. Webb has been the dominant one in the class all season and Pearson has played the role bridesmaid. Pearson will be looking for a little payback this summer and if the cards fall into his hands, he just might get it.

Jesse Masterpool, Chris Alldredge and Taylor Witt will also play heavy into the equation as they have each won in the class this season, while Pearson has gone win less. However, that's not to say the kid doesn't have the skills to win, because he does. It just all needs to fall into place for him.
